

Ansarullah Picnic

The Austin Texas Ansarullah Majlis had a pleasant and successful outdoor picnic on Sunday 25th March at a Round Rock area park. The park chosen is called Champion Park which is about six miles from Baitul Muqet Mosque. This Park had the honor of hosting picnics in the past for the Austin Ahmadiyya community. The park boasted large picnic pavilions with built-in grills, bicycle and hike trails, fishing areas, boating and a scenic bridge across Brushy Creek.

The picnic was scheduled at 2 PM after the Majlis' Amila meeting, Tahir Academy classes and congressional Zuhar and Asar prayers. Ansarullah along with Khuddam and Atfal started to arrive at the Champions Park a little after 2 PM. The weather was overcast but pleasant.

The occasion started with a wonderful barbecue of beef, hot dogs, chicken along with vegetarian food was also served. The expert cooks Akmal Mujeeb Sahib and Firdous Ahmad Sahib of Austin Majlis displayed their cooking skills to the pleasure of the attendees.

After lunch, the Ansar primarily competed in a jovial atmosphere the horseshoe throwing game. The Khuddam and itfal conducted their more active ball games such. The occasion concluded by 4:30 PM and the picnic area was cleaned by all present.

Some pictures of the event are included below:

